Legends of Soul

The extraordinary movement of personal songs have given many singers a special name based on their voice and with performance on and off the stage within their personal songs. Soul rhythm and blues has set a big path for Rhythm and Blues today but has been put aside by or lay forgotten by modern Rythem and Blues. Soul music has left a unimaginable mark within the American history.

Barry White aka Maestro
Singer and Soul seducer with His bass-baritone voice and his seductive singing. Barry White put out a string of hits during the disco prime time of the 1970s that redefined the term "romantic" music. Also and big time producer and composer, White has both redefined the term romantic and raise the bar for bedroom ballads. He has made a game changer with his music for R&B men.

James Brown aka The Godfather of Soul
A progenitor of funk music and a dancer with a tireless performance. Brown was also known for as the hardest working man in show business with his influence and work ethic.

Luther Vandross aka The Velvet Voice
A clean smooth voice that stood out from the crowd. When R&B music was about to take over, his voice became louder than music. The most unique and most magical voices of all time. You will fall in love with his voice.

MARVIN GAYE aka The Prince of Soul
An inspirational singer despite from strict father and seductive performer within the 80's in the highlight of his career. He was also known as PRINCE OF MOTOWN. However, the music took the crown of his soul because of the way his music inspired and moved peoples soul.

RAY CHARLES aka The Genius
Being blinded at the age of 7, he pioneered the genre of soul music during the 50's and became one of the first black musicians to be granted artistic control by a mainstream record company.

Nathaniel Adams Cole aka NAT KING COLE
The very first African-American to owned and performed on national television. He was beloved by millions as a singer of popular songs, but his specialty was piano in the tradition of "cool" jazz.

BARRY WHITE — USA 49¢

NAT KING COLE — USA 49¢

JAMES BROWN — USA 49¢

RAY CHARLES — USA 49¢

LUTHER VANDROSS — USA 49¢

MARVIN GAYE — USA 49¢